It is time for a break after the final writings about the 'Basic Theories' of LQ, 3x3 and 5D. There is a need to realize what is actually done and find new relations to the theme '1514-2014'. Those coming blogs will be restructured according to the renewed models. Besides, the ideas of GHRL (Global Human Rights Law) is started at the FB site and Avaaz petition site. Next, it should be set in motion.

Meanwhile, there are lots of questions and really no expectations for straight answers. Therefor an oldie of an evergreen by Manfred Mann's Earth Band is a comforting reminder. Although that gets one thinking even more about being 'confused at a higher level' after becoming a MSc. You won't get answers, you won't find answers, - and you probably need to make them yourself.

Manfred Mann's Earth Band is an English rock band formed by the South African musician Manfred Mann. He started in the 1960s had several hits like "The Mighty Quinn". Since 1971, the Earth Band has continued to perform and to tour. Till now, there has been 18 former members which makes the band performance rather varied through time. The Earth Band combines a stylistic progressive rock with Mann's jazz-influenced Moog synthesizer. Most of their music is very melodic and is performed by very skilled musicians. The lyrics is also well written, - like this about 'Questions'. However, Manfred do not sing himself, but plays behind his wall of synthesizers.
