As there is a Christian saying; 'Like the devils read the Bible' – there should be a Muslim saying 'Like the demons read the Quran'. Like anything, - human nature can be abused for death and misery rather than LifeQuality. The prophets writings can be abused as well, - and an Islamic State (IS) can too easily convert to an Iblis State. Since the Quran is written to jinns as well as humans and angels, - it is dedicated demons too. Then it becomes humanity's own obligation to know, detect and react when positive values of GCR (Good/Constructive/Right) turns negative BDW (Bad/Destructive/Wrong) and threatens all.

Because nothing is ever written by God/Allah directly to humans, - all writings rely on the prophets' and messengers' ability and will to deliver flawless citations. However, there is a vast chance for errors in replicating, translations and interpretations. 'Prophet and messenger' are key terms frequently used in Islam to describe the numerous divinely inspired men who claimed to convey God's message to humanity. These men include Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Aaron, John, Jesus and Muhammad. Yet, Islamic men forbid women into their divine domain, which cause a too single-sided influence on the communications. None of them is perfect and women might full up some of their deficiencies.

The actual differences between a prophet and an apostle/messenger provoke debate among Muslim scholars that cause divisive interpretations of the writings. Muslims believe that over 124000 prophets were sent to humanity and the jinn. The Quran also speaks of the Prophet Jesus's disciples, but does not mention their names. However, Muslim exegesis and Quran commentary does and includes John among the disciples. An old tradition, which involves the legend of Habib the Carpenter, mentions that John was one of the three disciples sent to Antioch to preach to the people there.

It is well known that the some of the prophets' writings are the cruelest inhuman statements publically allowed. In fact, as Satan/Iblis tempted Jesus, other prophets certainly were too, - some probably without detection. No one have proved otherwise. However, with a focus on positive LifeQuality, based on human needs and rights, this UU will not go into the details of those cruelties, but rather focus on consequences of the H.R. violations.

An extreme method of 'reward or punishment' is by 'virgins or flogging'. In fact, stone-age inhumanity like public stoning, flogging, amputation and beheading is promoted on internet and blasphemously blaming God/Allah for it. Contrariwise, - virgins are made slaves due to their religious belief in God. That is crimes, which can be judged to mutilation, torture or death penalty according to Sharia law. The enslaved virgins' Human Rights are violated in no better way than the Ariel Castro case in US, the Fritzl case in Belgium or any other abusive pimps. Such misinterpretations are the deceivers' guide to adultery.

Any Islam leader know very well that suicide is a sin according to the Quran, Allah and Muhammad. The Quran forbids it by stating, "do not kill or destroy yourself". The hadiths also states that suicide is unlawful and a sin. Yet, like some Iblis servants, certain Islamic theocrats deceive and persuade their cult members to commit suicide to massacre other innocent humans. However, by doing so, the theocrats will probably return to the Hell they came from. Furthermore, just for the argument sake: Consider that there could be a reward of 40 virgins in an after-life. However, life after death is not physical so sex and mating is impossible. There would be no physical love, but rather the responsibility to 40 virgins nagging eternally about their misfortune. That would surely be hellish.

There is going on social-psychological Games in the meta-category Animal Farm (AF). Some are closely related to the category Sexual Games (ID), - like the LYAHF - Let's You and Him Fight (UU 2015.jan.30). Ironically, rivals beating each other might as well beat themselves to achieve the same outcome. However, the LYAHF Game has an ulterior 3rd party that makes the two fight to finally run off with the winner and the spoils of the loser. It is a win-win-lose Game. Basically, the 1st degree of LYAHF is animalish, like when two males fight over a flock of females to breed. However, such an UnderConscience Drive (ID) is biological and overruns Will (Ego). The biological cause is that females smell blooming pollen of plants in the spring, their hormones automatically produces estrogen hormones that triggers male testosterone hormones and the Drive to fight for reproduction and survival (UU 2014.jan.10). However, this biological phenomenon is abused logically in 2nd and socially in 3rd degrees of the Game. The Abraham family affairs show how complex that can be over 200 generations (UU 2015.Jan.23). The Islam State, as an Temple/State OverConscience Belief (Superior-Ego), clearly abuses this natural Drive with OverConscience Drive manipulations (Superior-ID), when girls are made cheering men to massacre rivals in the most beastly and cowardly ways. The executors imagine 40 virgins as the possible spoil. Unfortunately, certain prophets clearly state that this collective archetype of stone-age sexual Games have always been abused in this way.

A new AF Game can be defined in the same concept. Empirically, there seems to exist a 1st degree of Game called 'Touch and Go' (TAG). It can be elevated to 2nd 'Hit and Run' (HAR) and 3rd 'Bomb and Transdent' (BAT). There is even a 4th degree at meta-level that is 'Apocalyptic'. As mentioned in UU 2012.nov.02: «Almost 90% of humanity believes in gods and half believe in God, Angels and Jinns. It is therefore social-psychologically vital that theocrats clearly express what is right and wrong in the writings. Lack of clearness will influence humans, humanity and society considerably in sinful ways. For example, 'The Book of Revelation' (The Apocalypse) that referred to John the Evangelist, is so full of evil insanity that it clearly is written by some seriously mentally disturbed persons, - possibly possessed by jinns. Nevertheless, that apocalyptic psychosis deviates in several ways from the other writings in the New Testament and does not belong amongst them. It has similarities to the occult of certain writings in the Old Testament." Alarmingly, the main objective of The Apocalypse is that only 144000 humans shall survive that human genocide. Terrifyingly, humans are now able to execute such scripts for real. That needs to be taken care of in unorthodox ways of thinking and handling.

A hypothesis in UU 2013.juni.28 indicates that such attempts is already tried out, - hidden in plain sight: "Theologically, a motivation for EW1 (WW1) might stem from occult interpretations of the Tunguska event in 1908. No one could rationally or theologically explain the explosion that was 1000 times the Hiroshima bomb and noticed globally (Ref UU 2013.juni.21). The formal powers of theocracies in Europe was a protection towards occult theocracies and safeguarded the Thrones and Temples. With EW1, the whole Throne/Temple structure fell and opened up for occult deceiving figures like Rasputin, Gurdjieff and Hitler. The apocalyptic script of John the evangelist opened up for occult scripts from Nostradamus collection of 'prophesies'. John tells about 4 doomsdays' horsemen and Nostradamus tells about a doomsday dictator called 'Hister'. However, the scripts are absolutely no divine prophesies at all. They are scripts for psychotic sociopaths that want to execute civilizations' 'worst-case scenario', preferably merely on rivals' territories.

Anyhow, back to the basics, - how should humans relate soundly? Firstly and most important, - although genetically more different from any kind of men, - man and woman can and should very well co-exist in mutual respectful agreement. It is quite possible; - the vast majority of humanity has proved it throughout all of our existence. They are simply sound families. However, some 'dangerous' memes of traumatized theocrats should not be allowed to overrule sanity and get away with blaming God/Allah for it. They need confrontations. It is however a hard nut to break. The prophet Jesus proved that with his life by forgiving misguided humans for their unintended sins. Yet, - even though there are doubts of his heritage, - there is no doubt about his democratic prophesy in the Quran. Such is needed to prevent another 4th degree Apocalyptic Game by another Hister wannabe.

Vincent Furnier, alias Alice Cooper, made several cabaret numbers where he dug deep into the inner and murky self. He came up with some quite artistic performances. Some characters were like Mephisto, Dr. Mabuse and Mr. Hyde. Later repertoires include figures like a traumatized boy (Steven), an urban terrorist and a mental patient (Dwight Fry). The musical performance was quite professional due to support from Frank Zappa and the Warner Bros. However, taken out of its content and performed as a cheap rock concert, - it loses the original significance. This UU 'Pick up the bones' presents a defensive victim of evil brutality. The album's title song 'Brutal Planet' presents a rather offensive and honest view, which would be silenced if it was directed towards certain theocrats. The very early album 'Love it to death' presents some reasons of how and why Vincent became Alice. The album is even somewhat religious. The song 'Is it my body' is a riddling about possessions and the song Black Juju is a theatrical story of the transition of the Christian Vincent to the alter ego Alice by drugs and hypnosis. Originally, Black Juju is an African voodoo used to protect against slavers' evil. Musically, it sound a bit like The Doors and is probably inspired by them.
